

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ORGANISED
BY THE CYBERFORENSICS & SECURITY
INNOVATION GROUP

'Making the UK and Europe a Safer Place to Live and Work Online'

12 January 2018 | 9:30 – 17:00

Rg38 (Ramsey), Canterbury Campus

To book your FREE place go to www.canterbury.ac.uk/cyberconference

For further details email cyberconference@canterbury.ac.uk

This conference is particularly aimed at those engaged in law enforcement, working in the cybersecurity and digital forensics industry, and in academia. Following speakers are confirmed to deliver presentations at the Conference.

- Cybercrime and Security Scenario - an overview
Prof Alastair Irons, Chair, BCS Cybercrime Forensics SG
- Virtual currencies - risks, possibilities and legal challenges
Jussi Aittola, National Bureau of Investigation, Finland
- How to deal with Ransomware and Blended Threats
Ian Howard, Cyber Threat Hunter, 7Safe
- Capacity Building - a European Initiative
Yves Vandermeer, Chair, Europol-ECTEG
- Security Framework for IoT
Floren Cabrera F. de Teresa, CEO, Bitbond Ltd
- Red Hat OpenShift/Containers & Security
David Caldwell, Technical Support Analyst, Red Hat EMEA

Sponsored by:

The British Computer Society Cybercrime Forensics Specialist Group

Cybercrime Forensics
Specialist Group

